His body arrived in Canyon this morning with a military escort. Funeral service will be held in the First Christian Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Llano Cemetery, Amarillo.

President Upheld the Local Board

Appeals Board Twice Reverse Board; and President Puts Man in the Army

Randall county has had its first appeal to the President, who sustained the local Selective Service Board in placing a boy in 1-A. The boy will report to the navy next week as a result of the appeal.

The case is a long drawn out affair. The local board placed the boy in 1-A last year. The Appeals Board at Amarillo reversed the local board and deferred the boy for six months. He worked on a farm owned by an Amarillo man, who himself did not live on the place.

When the six months deferment was up the local board again placed the boy in 1-A. Again the Appeals Board reversed the case and ordered a six months deferment. State headquarters of Selective Service was not satisfied with the decision of the Appeals Board and forwarded the case to Washington. The President ordered the boy placed in line for military service.

Since Selective Service has functioned in Randall county only one other man attempted to appeal to the President, but his case was refused by State headquarters as being insufficient.

The present case is of great interest since its final decision has indicated that boys 18 to 25 will soon be in service regardless of their present jobs, either on farms or in industry.

Singers to Meet aSturday-Sunday From Tihs Area

The 24th annual meeting of the Plateau Singing Convention will be held at West Texas State Saturday and Sunday.

The singers will start to gather Saturday afternoon. The business session will be held Saturday night, with John F. Taylor, president, presiding over the meeting of the directors.

A barbecue will be served Sunday. It is expected that several hundred singers from all parts of the Panhandle will attend the convention Sunday.

Mr. Taylor has advised members from all sections of the Panhandle to pool their cars in order to conserve gasoline. He has no estimate of the number that will be in Canyon for this convention, but directors from all sections of the Panhandle believe that the attendance will be large.

Four men will go to Lubbock on the 21st for induction in the navy.

New City Well To Operate By ht eEnd of June

Mayor W. A. Warren stated that the new city well should be in operation by the end of this month.

Various tests have been made on the well. The lowest test shows that the new well will produce 500 gallons of water per minute. Other tests show that the well will produce a much larger amount. Mr. Warren states that if the well produces only 500 gallons per minute the present water system will take care of a town twice the size of Canyon.

The new pump was expected to be shipped from the factory last week and should be in operation in ample time to care for the peak load for the summer.

Program to Honor Cadets Before End of This Month

Officers and men will close their work in the 350th College Training Detachment on June 30.

Before the men are shipped out, citizens of Canyon are asked to join the faculty of West Texas State and students in honoring the Detachment in a chapel assembly.

The time for this meeting has not been announced, but the date will be set in time to give all citizens the opportunity to attend this meeting.

"News" Corrects Dog Notice

In last week's issue in the CITY OF CANYON NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC the statement "All dogs should have the 1944 tags, and be confined so as not to bother your neighbors," should have read, "All dogs should be confined so as not to bother your neighbors." There is no City ordinance providing for dog tags which would allow dogs to rove at random, but there is an ordinance providing that dogs must be kept on the owner's premises.

5th War Loan Drive Is Started

City Streets in Bad Condition

Urgent Work Needed to Save Paving, and City Unable to Hire Laborers

Canyon's big problem right now is the repair of damaged streets, stated Mayor W. A. Warren Tuesday. All of the streets in Canyon need repair work, especially those topped with caliche and asphalt.

No two persons in Canyon agree as to what should be done to save this paving, but all agree that unless something is done most of the paving will be lost.

The City Commission has asked for bids from contractors to retop all of the asphalt. None are interested in the job, because of the manpower and material shortage.

Concrete curb and gutter are needed along all of these streets in order to hold the paving.

Citizens are asked to assist the city in keeping the gutters cleared of trash and weeds. This will assist in the drainage problem. The city cannot hire men to do this work, and the only solution for the present bad drainage situation is for all citizens to co-operate.

Candidate Travels by Horseback to Avoid New Deal

LeMarr Bailey is running for Congress from this district on an anti-New Deal platform. He visited Canyon Saturday morning and will make a speech here next month.

Bailey refuses to bow to any New Deal edict, and is making his campaign on horseback rather than ask a New Deal agency for gasoline.

Bailey was given a medical discharge after serving 22 months in the South Pacific war zone against the Japs. He is making his campaign mounted on a veteran army horse, whom he calls "Bureaucracy." "The old army horse gets peeved at times over his new name," states Bailey.

He figures that he can reach all parts of the district on horseback before election date.

Drivers License May Be Obtained All Day Mondays

Drivers license may be secured at the court house every Monday.

C. R. Moore, Texas Highway Patrolman, has been giving examinations for drivers license in Canyon for two years. Owing to the manpower shortage he has been unable to come every week, but now has arrangements made so that he will be able to be in Canyon every Monday throughout the day.

License may be renewed, and examinations given for new drivers.

Chaplain (Capt.) Lester L. Hill, post chaplain, Camp Reynolds, Penn., 1922 Graduate of West Texas State Teachers College, was in Canyon Friday trying to locate his family here while he is overseas. W. E. Williams of Bovina accompanied Capt. Hill to Canyon.

Wayne Trout Is in South Pacific

Wayne Trout, Seaman 1/c, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Trout, is on assignment somewhere in the South Pacific. Seaman Trout has been in the service since last August, received his basic training in San Diego, and was sent to the Pacific Area in December without having a furlough. He is now training for electrician's mate.

No Army-Navy Choice for Men After 1st July

Selective Service will allow no choice between the army and navy at the induction station after the first of July.

In months past young men had the privilege of volunteering for the navy before they went for their physical examinations. In this manner they were given first chance at induction station. Several boys who are going Sunday for their physical examinations have volunteered for navy in order to get first choice at this branch of the service. Randall county boys have been lucky in months past in getting their first choice.

After the first of July men will be assigned at the induction station according to the needs of the service.

Bascom Giles Well Pleased With Steps Made Land Titles

Bascom Giles was here from Austin Monday. He is State Land Commissioner and came to check up on progress which was being made in the surveys of land in which boundary discrepencies have existed since this county was organized.

At a meeting of land owners in December it was agreed that G. G. Foster be authorized to make surveys, and that the present owners would be given the right to buy excess lands. The boundary lines which are thereby established will be recognized as permanent by the Land Commissioner.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bishir and daughter, Peggy, have moved from Pampa to Seattle, Washington to make their home.

All Citizens Are Called for Bonds

All Bonds Bought in June and July Count in 5th War Loan Drive

Sale of War Bonds for the 5th Loan Drive is getting off to a fair start in Randall county according to R. H. Wright, county chairman.

With a quota of $195,000, the total sales to Tuesday night amounted to $34,827.25.

While all bonds sold during June and July count on the 5th War Loan Drive, Mr. Wright hopes that the entire quota will be reached by the time the official drive comes to an end.

Those who contemplate buying bonds are urged to do so at once.

Private McLaury attended West Texas State Teachers College, where he specialized in Physical Education. He received a B. S. degree.

Private McLaury qualified as sharpshooter on the rifle range with a qualification score of 292.

Normal Rainfall In Canyon Falls First Six Months

Canyon received 1.33 inches of rain over the week end.

The rain Friday night amounted to .77 of an inch; Saturday night,

In spite of much lightning and thunder last night, only .02 of an inch of rain fell in Canyon.

.06 of an inch; Sunday night, .50 of an inch.

The weatherman stated that no rain will fall over this week-end and splendid harvest conditions will prevail.

A total of 3.28 inches of rain has fallen this month. The total of 10.05 inches has fallen so far this year. This is the normal amount of rain for the first six months period. In 1943 the rainfall was only 5.09 inches for the first six months.

Some Trees Still a Menace to Cars and Pedestrians

Dr. S. H. Condron, member of the City Commission, states that the response of the citizens to trim up their trees is gratifying in most parts of Canyon. But many citizens have so far failed to assist in the trim-up campaign, and cut off branches which overhang sidewalks, and even hang down into the streets.

There are several corners in Canyon where the trees hang so low and the shrubbery is so thick that hazards result, both for pedestrians and auto drivers.

The City Commission is again urging that all overhanging branches be removed from the trees.

Normal Yield on Wheat Expected

Excellent Weather During Entire Spring Has Developed An Unusual Grain Crop

Harvest will be in full swing in Randall county by the end of next week if favorable weather continues. The weatherman states that there will be no more rain before next week.

Weather conditions have been ideal for wheat this spring. There has been sufficient rain, with continued cool nights, and few hot days. The early wheat is in splendid condition, and the late wheat is adding bushels of yield as this fine weather continues.

It is estimated that Randall county has 175,000 acres of wheat. There has been practically no loss of acreage this year. More acres of wheat will be harvested this year than in 1943. The wheat will be better and the yield will be better. The county has a normal wheat yield of 1,800,000 bushels, and it is estimated that the yield this year will go to approximately 2,000,000 bushels.

Weeds will be a problem again for the harvest. The heavy rains of the past month have caused the weeds to make a rapid growth. The result will be a prolonged harvest, and more expensive one in handling the wheat crop.

Several combine crews have been here to look over the wheat crop with a view of moving here for harvest. These crews are starting in North Texas and working their way on their way to the Dakotas. Several farmers who have no labor in sight for harvest intend hiring their wheat cut by these commercial crews.

Randall county has about 25,000 acres of barley. This will be ready to cut about the middle of the wheat harvest. It is estimated that most of this barley will make around 40 bushels to the acre.

While the prospects for oats is good, the acreage is small.

Another Article on Early History Canyon Churches

The following is the third of a series of articles on the churches of Canyon:

When the college was built in 1910, the college students in the Baptist Church were taught in two large classes presided over by Miss Mary E. Hudspeth and Miss Jennie C. Ritchie, two of the original members of the college faculty—Miss Ritchie for the boys and Miss Hudspeth for girls.

These two ladies were born teachers of school or Sunday School, well trained in the psychology of presentation of truth, and devoted Christians. So popular were their classes that the college students, irrespective of denominations, found the way out to the unpretentious little wooden church.

Mrs. Cook was 58 years old. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Era Dean Hardin of Canyon; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Andrews of Los Angeles; three broters, Lance Andrews and Jim Andrews of Los Angeles and Luther Andrews of Kirkland, and three sisters, Mrs. Jim Terrell of Childress, Mrs. Ruby Duff of Los Angeles and Mrs. M. T. Murphy of Oakland.

Funeral services will be held at the family home in Canyon at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning, with Raymond Whittington, Church of Christ, minister, officiating. The body will be taken overland to Kirkland for burial under the direction of Griggs-Thompson Funeral Home.

A-C Ernest Sykes Completes Basic

A/C Ernest T. Sykes has completed his basic flying training at Gardner Field, Calif., and has been sent to an advanced flying school to finish his pilot training.

A/C Sykes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Sykes, attended West Texas State High School, was accepted as A/C at Laredo, Texas, May 1943. He has served as radio-operator, mechanic and aerial gunner and has been awarded pistol marksmanship medal and gunner's wings.

Help Is Needed by the Farmers

The Randall County small grain crop for 1944 promises to be something near a record in size. Farmers are going to need all the help they can get to harvest the crop. The usual transient labor will likely not be sufficient to fill the usual harvest time need. Harvest will be in full swing in central Kansas, Northern Oklahoma and all over the Texas High Plains at the same time owing to weather conditions that changed somewhat the usual progress of ripening, from south to north. This may be the cause of acute labor shortages in parts of this area.

Randall county also has a very heavy crop of barley which will be ready for harvest before the wheat is out of the way.

Every man who can be spared from other industries will be needed by Randall county farmers. The price of wheat is controlled by a rigid price ceiling.

Because of this farmers cannot pay wages in excess of that being paid by war industries in order to get men for the harvest. In spite of this, wages are being offered in excess of any paid for the past 20 years.

Business and professional men can help to meet this labor shortage by postponing all work, that is not absolutely essential, during the harvest period from June 25th to July 15th.

Delays in harvesting in Randall county can easily cause the loss of thousands of bushels of the World's best wheat. Wheat is needed this year more than at any time for many years. The cooperation of everyone is needed to save the crop. The County Agent's office is directing labor to farmers who file requests for help.

States' Rights received another jolt at the hands of the New Deal Supreme Court. By a vote of 4 to 3, with two members of the court not participating, insurance is declared interstate commerce and therefore due to be regulated through the bureaucrats of Washington, rather than through the 48 states. It is unfortunate that all nine members of the court did not participate in the decision. The fundamental point in the case is that the standing rules of the Supreme Court during 75 years were over-ridden in this decision. Those who watched the trend of transfer of authority from the various states to federal control need not be surprised. The federal government is rapidly surplanting local government, whether you like it or not. The fact that there are more federal employees in every state in the union today than there are local and state employees indicates how rapidly centralized government is taking over in this nation. You may tear your hair and denounce the encroachment of the federal government on local government, but the fact remains that the federal government is going to continue to grow stronger while local government yields its various functions. The New Deal has encouraged such a movement. But regardless of who is in office during the coming four years, you will see the trend continue in view of the strong position which is now occupied by the bureaucrats. The Republicans will not be able to remedy the situation, in spite of any campaign promises.

The waste of war is terrible, but it cannot be helped. Our government has invested six billions of dollars in war plants. The government will be able to recover not more than 27 cents on the dollar of this investment. Only a small per cent of the machinery and equipment installed in these plants may be converted into peace-time production. The balance will be an economic waste. But the greatest waste—and one which cannot be put into dollars and cents—is that of human life. America can pay off the terrible $300 billion war debt, but we cannot bring back the lives of those who have died in the defense of this country; or restore the broken bodies of those who are disabled for life by the tragedy of war. The United Nations must see to it that a peace is written this time which shall forever banish wars.

Hitler now has three fronts on his hands, any one of which is a man-sized job to handle. Another front may be suggested, when the uprising within the conquered nations really get underway. When Russia decides to resume her drive on Berlin, Hitler will realize what he is up against. His forces are taking a bad beating in Italy, while the Allied invasion of France is on the largest scale of any the world has witnessed. How long will the German people take their punishment? One thing is certain: Our forces must get underway toward Berlin before the German people fully realize their ultimate fate is defeat.

The WACs want 200,000 young women in this organization. Only 72,000 have volunteered. This results in able bodied men doing work around the army camps which young women could do if they would only volunteer. Congress has been called upon to draft women for the units which are so delinquent in personnel. The suggestion comes too late. Had the President been willing for the universal labor act when the war started, the labor situation would have not been so so critical.

Rains continue to fall. Wheat continues to grow. So do the weeds. In some sections of the county it looks like a race between the wheat and the weeds. When this occurs the farmers have an extra harvest bill, and this would be doubly bad in 1944 when there is such a shortage of manpower.

Perhaps some readers misunderstood our statement last week that the peace would be harder to win than the war. General Pershing urged that the war be continued in 1918 until the German people were thoroughly whipped. He realized that Germans were quitting only because the war was starting against them. The Allies imposed a hard peace, and then took no steps to enforce this peace. At this time a list of war criminals is being compiled with the view of imposing punishment after the Germans are whipped. We all agree that no punishment could be meted out to Hitler to recompense for the world tragedy which he started. But to make a martyr of him would immortalize him in the eyes of the fantastic youth of Germany, and continue the hatred which started this war. No one cares what becomes of the lesser lights, Goering, Goebbels, Himmler, and their kin. Hitler is the real problem, and a careful study of his case is needed before the end of the war—if he lives to see the end.

President Roosevelt and Vice President Wallace had a long talk over the political situation before the latter left for China. The Vice President told the President that his own political fate rested in the hands of the Chief Executive. He would accept the nomination for Vice President if this suited the President, or he would step aside. What else could he do? The President has the nomination sewed up if he wants it. He can name his own running mate. The New Dealers are more interested in continuing in office than they are in the fate of even such a good New Dealer as the Vice President. The President has not said he will accept the nomination, but chances are that he will be in the running, and the only consideration he will have is to get the strongest runningmate. Wallace is a mere incident in this political situation.

Jim Farley has quit politics, resigning as chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee. Farley had much to do with the rise of Roosevelt, but he was opposed to a 3rd term, and certainly is opposed to a 4th term. He found that while politics was an intriguing game, it was unprofitable. He secured a fine job in the business field and wants to devote his time to this job. Whether Farley will oppose the re-nomination of the President, or his re-election remains to be seen. At any rate, millions of American people will miss the personalized form letters which Farley managed to send out at regular intervals, with his signature in green ink. Farley is a national character. It is really too bad that he was more interested in managing political campaigns from the sidelines than getting into the fray and running for public office himself.

Wendell Willkie will not allow himself to be read out of the leadership of the Republican party. Hoover is trying to run the party. These two strong personalities will clash before and during the convention. In the meanwhile Dewey must decide whether to accepted the nomination. So far as he is concerned, it is probably a now-or-never proposition. He can win on the first or second ballot if he wishes the nomination. If he rejects the offer, chances are he will never get another chance. His chances of election will depend entirely upon the course of the war when November comes.

General DeGaulle is coming to Washington to see President Roosevelt. The President seems to be the only national leader who has so far been able to handle this erratic Frenchman. His main trouble is that he wants to set up his own government in France, which will be as hard on the people as the German yoke. The people of the United Nations are interested in seeing France re-established as a power, but this cannot be done without the leadership of a strong national character who is more interested in the future of France than he is in his own personal political fortunes.

About 20% of the War Bonds bought monthly are being cashed. This is a mockery of patriotism. War Bonds are the only method which the government has of providing money to win the war. No matter if a lot of it is wasted by government—the money must be provided. Save your Bonds. Do not cash them when the going gets tough. Every citizen wants to have a part in winning the war, and the monthly purchase of war bonds is the only small part that most of us can have.

The bureaucrat down at Dallas who ruled that business firms could not advertise for negro labor was overruled by Washington after the heat was turned on. Now this bureaucrat has decided to resign, after long years in various government agencies. He says he is going to take a long vacation. So far as the people of the South are concerned, this guy and all his kind may take a permanent vacation.

School Custodians Given Certificates In Training Course

Eighteen custodians, representing eleven schools, received certificates Friday, when they completed the first Short Course for Building Custodians which has ever been offered on the campus of West Texas State College. For five days the men had taken intensive training to enable them to do their work better, and so make Texas school buildings more attractive and healthful.

The instruction was given by Arnold E. Wittman and Robert C. Brown of Texas A. and M. College, which co-operated with West Texas State in giving the course. Moving pictures and film strips were used in connection with the lectures.

The custodians were guests of the college at the Museum on Wednesday afternoon, when President Hill told them many interesting stories of the exhibits there. On Tuesday a trip to Buffalo Lake was arranged for their entertainment.

Men who took the course were I. H. Hollabaugh and I. M. Steen, Canyon Public School; H. G. Hynds, White Deer; O. H. McLeod and S. T. Harabson, Spearman; E. C. Dawes, G. D. Drake, Dallas Milner, H. Cook, G. C. Cole, Karl Ellison, M. M. Cavender, W. T.; Tullis Davis and Tom Tucker, Clarendon; A. O. Beck, Floydada; Herbert A. Smith, Dumas; Oliver King, Perryton; and John H. Head, Rotan. Mr. Head came from the greatest distance to the course.

The schools from which the custodians came paid their expenses, which included only transportation, food and lodging, as there were no fees in connection with the course.

VITAL QUESTION

In a small town where two brothers are engaged in the retail coal business a religious revival was held and one of the brothers got converted. For weeks he tried to persuade his partner to join the church. One day he asked:

"Why can't you get religion and join the church like I did?"

"It's a fine thing for you to belong to the church," replied the other, "but if I join the church who'll weigh the coal?"

UPSET

A fancy dress dance was in progress and the conversation was between two women sitting in a corner.

Mrs. Smythe looks rather upset, don't you think?" said the first.

"I should think she does," replied the other. "You see, she came as a Hawaiian beauty, with grass skirts and all—and they awarded her first prize in the humorous section as 'The Old Thatched Cottage.'"

The Nazis are said to be already planning their next war, but the Allied Nations have some plans, too.

HALF PRICE

It's seldom you hear of a half price sale these days—but here is one.

We have a big selection of good quality stationery, which no one seems to want. It's all good stuff, but lacks popular appeal for some reason or other.

Here is the chance to stock up on "cheap" stationery, with high grade quality.

And do not forget to look over the stock of regular, high grade stationery selling at regular prices—most of which is far under city prices.

When you hope you don't intrude, you usually do.

At least this war has produced one good result: when you buy a new shirt it is held in its folded condition by bits of gummed paper instead of by innumerable pins. The only way to find all the invisible pins was to put the shirt on—and get scratched in three or four places.

All of us talk sentimentally of "the little red schoolhouse." As a matter of fact, I don't know of a single such schoolhouse in the State though I have seen countless little white school houses.

Likewise we speak of the "blue-backed speller" but the one I studied—and this was almost 40 years ago—had a red back.

It takes more than a ton of gasoline to "deliver" a ton of bombs.

Over half of all supplies shipped to the front is petroleum in one form or another.

Since 1942, the output of 100 octane gas has increased eightfold and it requires almost twice as much crude oil to produce a gallon of 100 octane gas as it does to produce a gallon of regular automotive gas.

Training one pilot uses more gas than the average car owner would burn in 18 years.

In an hour, a Flying Fortress consumes enough gasoline to last the average motorist six months.

These are some of the facts pointed out by District 3 product conservation subcommittee for the Petroleum War Industry in its campaign to acquaint the public with the need for conserving gasoline and to eliminate the black market. The committee declares: "Fighting who attack in the back. forces must come first and will get what they need. As a result, the home front will get less than it wants; and the biggest part of the home front allotment must go to essential needs — farms, trucks, buses, industry, doctors. Needs of this group are imperative; they are the supply line to victory."

Montgomery of Floydada in a double ring ceremony performed in the home of the bride's parents by Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, at 5:00 o'clock Sunday.

Dr. Johnson read the vows before a background of tall baskets filled with beautiful flowers, banked by white tapers in tall branched candelabra.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. J. Lee Allen played "I Love You Truly." Barbara Ruth Allen, niece of the bride, and Ona Mae McMurray, sister of the bride, lighted the candles.

The traditional wedding march "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was played as the bride and groom entered.

The bride wore an ivory satin and lace dress which ended in a train. Her long veil was caught with a crown and orange blossoms. White roses and baby breath tied with long white satin streamers formed her bouquet.

Little Lee Ona Mae Foster and Margaret Louise Dunn nieces of the bride and groom were little train bearers. For something old and something borrowed the bride wore her mother's wedding ring; for something new a beautiful ivory necklace sent to the bride from India by her brother, Col. Paul H. McMurray. For something blue the bride carried her sister's handkerchief that had come from Egypt.

Mrs. J. H. McMurray, mother of the bride wore a lavender dress and had a corsage of delicate pink roses. Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress with a corsage of red roses. Both corsages were gifts of the bride.

The bride's going away dress was navy blue with navy accessories. After a short honeymoon trip to Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will make their home at Dimmitt, Texas.

Mayor Warren Tells of Canyon's Future at Rotary Club

Mayor W. A. Warren spoke Tuesday at the weekly luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club.

Dr. A. M. Meyer extended an invitation to all citizens to attend the final meeting of the officers and men of the 350th College Training Detachment with the faculty and students of the college. The time for this meeting will soon be announced.

Dr. S. H. Condron complimented citizens who had trimmed their trees to make Canyon a more attractive town. But there are places where this has not been done.

Mr. Warren stated that all citizens of Canyon should take an interest in the affairs of Canyon. They are invited to investigate the city's affairs at any time.

Canyon is in good financial condition. The present debt is $52,000 which will be reduced $6,000 this year. The new city well will cost about $12,000 and the cash is available to pay for this. Canyon has one of the cheapest water rates in Texas. The water department is self-sustaining.

Mr. Warren states that the big problem in Canyon is the street situation, which is outlined on another page of this issue. The present paving must be repaired or it will be lost.

Salaries have been increased in order to keep efficient employees.

Practically all citizens received notices of small increases in the valuation of their property, as set by the Board of Equalization. These increases were necessary to take care of the increase in operating costs of the city.

A study is being made of the parks situation. Fairly good provision exists for play grounds at the public schools and college. Beauty spots are needed, but the city is limited in the amount it can spend on parks.

Mayor Warren states that Canyon should be zoned so far as livestock is concerned. Too much livestock is being kept in various parts of Canyon. Neighbors should be able to regulate such practices. It is reported that infantile paralysis is being traced to horse lots. But before unsanitary conditions may be cleaned up, citizens who object to such conditions must make up their minds to back the City Commission when an attempt is made to clean up these conditions.

All citizens are called upon to do their best to make this the best and most attractive town in Texas. Canyon has a big investment in our schools and every citizen should help protect this investment.

The need of adequate airport facilities will be urgent after the war closes, and every citizen is urged to be alert to the needs of the community.

Visitors were: Fred P. Brian and Oran Thomas, of Amarillo; Bob Lindsey of Borger; Paul W. Beck of El Paso; Capt. A. C. Freedman and C. L. Sone of Canyon.

Lt. and Mrs. J. G. Cox, and Mrs. F. B. Hegi and children of Tahoka spent Friday in the home of their grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Cox and aunt, Miss Elizabeth Cox. Lt. Cox has been stationed at Great Falls, Montana, and was enroute to Brownfield where he is assigned as an instructor in the Ferry division of the Air Transport.

Mrs. J. L. Harden and Jimmie and Mrs. Mavis Harden Hill left Tuesday for their home in California after having spent two weeks with relatives and friends in Canyon.

Mrs. Rhome Mobley and children are at the home of her mother in Amarillo where Mrs. Mobley is under medical treatment.

Mrs. Milton Neilson is in Fort Worth visiting with her husband.

C., where he was employed in the War Department before entering the service, May 6, 1943. He has visited his parents in Canyon practically every year of the nine years that they have resided here.

Mrs. Combs Rests, Bruised in Wreck

Mrs. J. M. Hart and Mrs. Curtis Lowe and Billie Gene visited in the parental G. B. Combs home Monday and Tuesday.

Wartime Washington

By Congressman Eugene Worley

News of the invasion has overshadowed everything else in Washington. Official ears were glued to late radio bulletins, and the latest communiques were scanned with anxious eyes. Pressing matters on the home front were temporarily forgotten. While nearly everyone in Washington expected this greatest of all military operations to begin in June, the secret was so well kept that but a handful of men knew exactly when D-Day would actually begin. Needless to say, interest in the success of the operations was intense. For the past two years, Congress has appropriated multiplied billions of dollars for the express purpose of guaranteeing our men the best training and the best equipment in the world. The wisdom of this policy is reflected when we examine invasion figures. More than eleven thousand planes provided an unbeatable air umbrella for the invasion forces. At least four thousand warships of all kinds were used in the operation. The landing barges, the tanks, the guns and bullets used were the best that could be supplied by the brains and genius of a mighty nation. The equipment lost or destroyed can be replaced—but the lives of the men which would be lost without superior equipment would be gone forever.

At least half the members of Congress have sons and daughters on active duty with the armed forces. Many members have already received grim messages from the War Department or Navy that one or more sons have been lost in the current conflict. The most recent was the son of Paul Brown, member from Georgia, who has been reported missing in action when his submarine failed to return after operations against the Japanese in the South Pacific.

Everyone has confidence in Texas-born General Eisenhower and is gratified over the immediate success. Many fear, however, that the Germans are in the process of bringing up heavy reinforcements to fling at the relatively small Allied force now in France.

Next week an additional appropriation for members of the armed forces for war operations will be acted on. Congress will undoubtedly continue to follow the policy of "Too much and on time" rather than the fatal policy followed by France of "Too little—too late."

Price Control Act

This week both Houses of Congress are debating continuation of the OPA (Price Control Act.) Democrats and Republicans are agreed that the fundamental principles of price control are absolutely essential to maintain a stable economy and to prevent the creation of a crop of war millionaires. Congress is determined however, to make improvements in the bill which will make the operation of the act as fair and equitable as possible and to prevent inequalities which the administration of the act has disclosed.

One such improvement is a restriction of the power to hold "star chamber" proceedings or 'kangaroo courts." This amendment has tremendous support.

Another improvement which has very active support from Congress from agricultural sections is to permit the farmer to include the cost of his labor in determining the selling price of farm products. Such a measure was passed by the House last year but was never acted on by the Senate.

Efforts have also been made to keep the administration of all rationing as closely in the hands of the County Boards and local people as humanly possible. It is also hoped that ways and means can be found to reduce the terrific number of rules, regulations and directives, and in addition to make them as clear and understandable as possible.

No one in Congress wants any more regulation, directives, regimentation, etc., than war conditions absolutely demand and Congress is determined to make the whole program as simple and workable as it can be made.

Track and Field Meet Ls Held by Recreation Club

The Junior division of the Canyon Recreation Club had their first track and field meet Friday evening, June 9. Three teams competed for honors in seven events. The competition was keen and the spirit which the boys illustrated while competing against each other brought out the finest of sportsmanship.

The pole vault brought out the finest competition. Some of the best young pole vaulters in the Panhandle took part in this event. Mitchell Jones, Jr., won this event. This 12 year old lad vaulted 8 feet one inch. He did not win easily as Clyde Fewell and Horace Carter pushed him all the way. Carter vaulted 7 feet 9 inches and Fewell went to 7 feet 5 inches. Mack Cantrell did well and looked as if he has a fine future as a track athlete. Mitchell Jones has one of the brightest futures as a vaulting star as any young lad in this section of the state.

Charles Snap looked very good as a sprinter, and Bill Knighton looked as if he could develop into a fine high jumper. Carroll Vaughan's team won first with 40 points. Charles Snap's team was second with 21 points and Cantrell's team followed in third place.

Coach Nicklaus, the director of the Canyon Recreation Club, was well pleased with the meet. Another meet will be held within the next three weeks.

The swimming program for the boys in this club is now well under way. They swim every Tuesday and Thursday at 4:30 at the Buffalo Pool. The soft ball program will continue. The games are every Monday and Wednesday at 6:30 on the Canyon High School playgrounds.

Following is the list of events and winners in order of winning in track and field meet: Pole vault, Mitchell Jones, Jr., Horace Carter, Clyde Fewell; high jump, Bill Knighton, Carroll Vaughan, Chas. Snap; broad jump, Bill Knighton, Carroll Vaughan, Clyde Fewell; 75 yard dash, Chas. Snap, Bill Knighton, Horace Carter; 50 yard dash, Chas. "I want you to know that this Command found your son to be at all times capable, intelligent, and thorough in the performance of his duties.

"His excellent character was above reproach, indicating that his home surroundings and general upbringing were of the very best. Albert Ross Hunter was an American boy of the very finest type, well liked and respected by his mates. All hands of this station join with me in expressing our sympathy for you in this great sorrow.

"These are sad days for a great many Americans who have lost their loved ones in the service of our country. We must all remember that these costly sacrifices are the price of freedom, and bend our every effort to shortening this war. Sincerely yours, S. E. Burroughs, Jr., Captain, U. S. Navy, Commanding."

Workers in Phone System Asking for Pay Increase

The Southwestern Telephone Workers Union, representing more than 30,000 non-supervisory employees of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, have demandaded a general increase of 17½c per hour. Bargaining negotiations are expected to start immediately.

The Telephone Workers, termed as essential to the War effort, has been caught between the vice-like jaws of the "high cost of living" and one of the lowest salary scales in the A. T. & T. Company. The employees with some progression schedules amounting to eleven years finds himself in the same general wage bracket of workers who reach their maximum in from one to two years. Their rates of pay in some instances are as low as $16.00 per week, or $65.00 per month.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, one of the largest companies in the Bell System, has in effect a wage scale ranking seventeenth in a list of twenty-two major Bell Companies. Their average hourly rate of pay (including all high paid officials) is 77c per hour as compared to the Bell System average of 94c.

Better than 75% of the telejhone workers, who are heads of families, are performing part time work on various outside jobs or have found it necessary for their wives to work in order to maintain even a reasonable standard of living.

The salaries paid to telephone workers of the Southwest have always been low due to the influence of agriculture upon this section. However, the Southwest is fast becoming industrialized and the rates must be raised to at least the national average.

LIBERATION OF EUROPE BEGINS

The historic news flash, "First Allied landings in Western Europe have started," sent over the teletypes of the overseas branch of the Office of War Information, at 3:43 a. m., Tuesday, June 6, was part of the second, or actual combat phase of psychological warfare being waged directly under Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces. The first phase of psychological warfare was the strategic or preparatory phase—the softening up—during which the Americans and the British bombarded the enemy and occupied countries with leaflets designed to undermine enemy morale and bolster the morale of the enslaved peoples. Germany, France, Belgium, Holland and Norway have been receiving miniature newspapers with a combined circulation of almost 16 million. Part of the present combat phase will be carried on by psychological warfare branch combat teams who will be equipped with portable printing presses and radio equipment to keep the local population in liberated areas informed as to the progress of the war and to give in the local language the regulations of the military command.

INVASION CUTS CIVILIAN SUPPLIES

Recent shortage of many civilian supplies may be attributed to military demands of the forces of liberation. Examples are radio tubes and parts, gasoline and oil. In spite of a radio manufacturing output over 10 times as great as pre-war, military demands for radio tubes and repair parts have increased. This explains why civilians are finding it hard to get these items, the War Production Board says. Every military plane has radio equipment, some as much as $100,000 worth each. Ships, tanks and other mobile equipment also use radio equipment. A five-month supply of 100-octane gasoline is required for each of the 11,000 planes backing up Allied liberation forces, the Petroleum Administration of War reports. Heavy and imperative demands for oil by General Eisenhower as early as last winter almost made New York, Boston, and Philadelphia the first indirect casualties. Increased production by East Coast refineries, the "big inch" and "little inch" pipelines, and emergency deliveries helped avert civilian shortages of oil and gas in the East.

FARMERS HELP IN FIFTH WAR LOAN

The nation's farm army of six million along with their town and city neighbors went into action this week on the Fifth War Loan, the War Finance Division of the Treasury announces. Total goal for this loan is 16 billion dollars by July 8. Last year farm people bought $1,200,000,000 in War Bonds—about 10 per cent of their net income. With an estimated net farm income of 13 billion dollars for 1944, bond purchases by farm people are expected to be higher this year than last. The War Bonds bought during the Fifth War Loan will enable our Government to get more and better war equipment for its fighters than the bonds bought a year ago, according to a compilation of war equipment costs by the War Department. A heavy bomber, which a year ago cost $500,000, today costs half that much. A Bofors anti-aircraft gun formerly cost $25,000, now costs only $13,000. A year ago the Garand rifle cost $80. Today it costs $35. A few items, among them the good old army mule, have gone up in price. A year ago Uncle Sam paid $190 for an army mule. Today such a mule costs Uncle $225.

MORE FARM IMPLEMENTS

Certain small manufacturers are permitted to produce unlimited quantities of any farm machinery, equipment and repair parts made entirely from surplus materials or materials needing no allotments or priorities assistance higher than AA-4 preference rating, WPB announces. Items most manufacturers will be able to produce under this relaxation, include corn shellers, feed grinders, pitchforks, hand cultivators, rakes, hoes, shovels and barnyard and poultry equipment.

NEW PRICES ON FOOD

Retail prices for snap beans, under new ceilings are expected to be from 16 to 18 cents per pound during June, while field grown cucumbers will sell for 9 to 10 cents from June 16 through June 30, OPA announces. Hothouse cucumbers will sell for about 22 cents per pound. For the remainder of June, prices on early 1944 potatoes will be increased about 1-4 cent a pound in all states except California and Arizona. Cabbage ceilings range from 3.9 to 4.3 cents a pound. Effective June 17 retail prices on fresh fish and seafood will be reduced from one to three cents a pound.

ROUND-UP

Farmers bought and accepted early delivery of the largest tonnage of commercial fertilizers and fertilizer materials in the nation's history during the past 12 months, the War Food Administration says, thus enabling plants to keep working at the capacity permitted by available labor and also avoiding a critical shortage of fertilizers on farms. . . . Ration certificates issued for purchase of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes are now good indefinitely, OPA says. . . . Householders should fill their coal bins during the summer months because the shortage of motor trucks and drivers for distributing coal is expected to reach a critical stage by the beginning of the coal season, the Office of Defense Transportation advises. . . . On July 1, nearly 100,000 Cadet Nurses from the 1,064 schools of nursing will celebrate the first birthday of the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps. . . . Candy production of more than 2½ billion pounds reached an all-time high in the U. S. last year, according to the Department of Commerce. . . . No large scale resumption of bicycle production will be possible until the war in Europe has been brought to a successful conclusion, WPB says. . . . Carry-over of feed grains at the end of the present feeding year probably will be the smallest for any year since 1937, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics predicts. . . . A new type of cotton gauze bandage, developed in a Department of Agriculture Laboratory, tends to fit and cling better than ordinary gauze and it allows greater freedom of movement in bandaged joints, the Department of Agriculture reports.

FORCE OF HABIT

A batch of German prisoners had just arrived in England and were being marched to the internment camp. Round a bend on the canal nearby a barge came slowly into view. The bargee cracked his whip to warn the lockkeeper of his coming. Immediately the prisoners broke ranks and ran in all directions.

"Hey!" roared the camp commandant.

"S'alright, sir," said a Tommy. "They've been eating so much horseflesh lately that every time they hear the crack of a whip they breaks into a gallop."

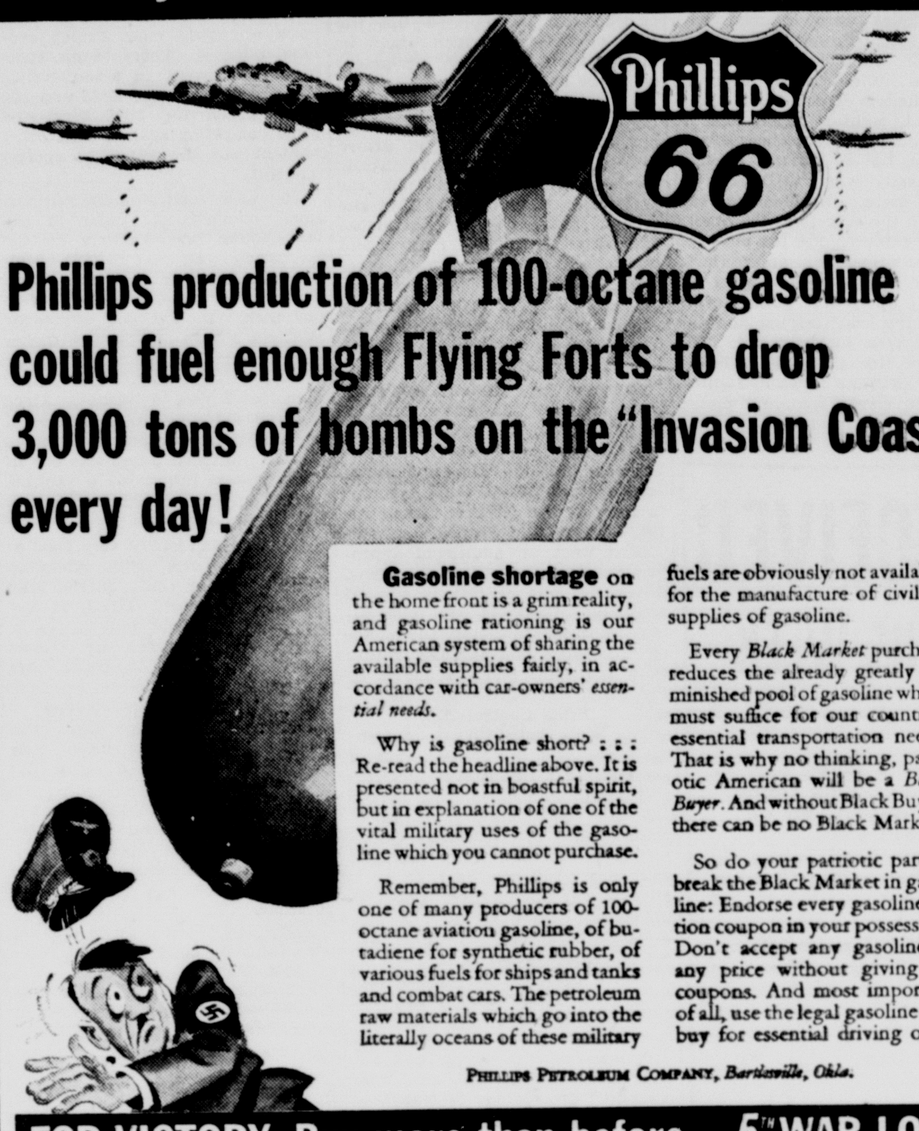
An Advertisement Addressed to Buyers of BLACK MARKET Gasoline



Phillips production of 100-octane gasoline could fuel enough Flying Forts to drop 3,000 tons of bombs on the "Invasion Coast" every day!

Gasoline shortage on the home front is a grim reality, and gasoline rationing is our American system of sharing the available supplies fairly, in accordance with car-owners' essential needs.

Why is gasoline short? : : : Re-read the headline above. It is presented not in boastful spirit, but in explanation of one of the vital military uses of the gasoline which you cannot purchase.

Remember, Phillips is only one of many producers of 100-octane aviation gasoline, of butadiene for synthetic rubber, of various fuels for ships and tanks and combat cars. The petroleum raw materials which go into the literally oceans of these military fuels are obviously not available for the manufacture of civilian supplies of gasoline.

Every Black Market purchase reduces the already greatly diminished pool of gasoline which must suffice for our country's essential transportation needs. That is why no thinking, patriotic American will be a Black Buyer. And without Black Buyers there can be no Black Markets.

So do your patriotic part to break the Black Market in gasoline: Endorse every gasoline ration coupon in your possession. Don't accept any gasoline at any price without giving up coupons. And most important of all, use the legal gasoline you buy for essential driving only.

Dishpan Hints

Right way to use soap in the dishpan is the way a chef adds seasoning—just enough for perfect results. Not a speck more or less. Remember, soap is made of precious war materials.

To keep from wasting soap, use it in proportion to the amount of water and the greasiness of the dishes. If suds die down, add a little more soap, swish it around with a mop or shaker to get foamy bubbles.

Canning Equipment

The outlook for canning is much brighter this year. We had plenty of good garden seed as well as a good season for growing vegetables. Equipment will also be more plentiful.

Pressure canners are unrationed but the supply is still limited. The condition of the canner is very important. The rim of the lid and the cooker should be free of grease or dirt, as this will sometimes let steam leak out. Small nicks or scratches can be helped with steel wool. Before the canning season begins, remove petcock and valve, soak in vinegar a short time to loosen food material. Draw a string or strip of cloth through to clean thoroughly. Make sure that the gauge on the steam-pressure canner will register accurately. If the gauge has not been checked for some time, it would be wise to have this done.

Enamel cookers should not be cleaned with harsh cleaners. Care should be taken not to chip the enamel as this causes rusting.

At least 40 per cent of all fruit jars are made with glass tops this year. The metal bands should be loose while jars sealed with these caps are being processed. Turn screw band tight after jar is taken from canner. After 12 hours, when jar is cold, remove screw band. Bands should be wiped dry and stored in a dry place to prevent rusting. A 10-lb. loose woven potato sack is good for this purpose.

The two piece metal caps are available. Be careful to read and follow all manufacturers' directions even if you have used the same type before. This is necessary because of wartime substitutes.

All your old jars with glass tops and wire bails may be used again this year with new jar rubbers. Care must be used with new rubbers as they are all reclaimed or synthetic rubber. Do not stretch or bend according to former directions for testing.

Jars, too, are important. Look them over carefully (even if they are new) to be sure there are no cracks or nicked rims.

Coffee, pickles, mayonnaise, etc., jars may be used. For the small mouth type, so often found, flats are available, but the original screw top lid should be saved. Use these jars for processing in water bath where there is less strain on the jars.

What news will Gen. Eisenhower get from us?

You know now what we've heard from him.

We've heard that Eisenhower and his Americans have hurled themselves like a thunderbolt against the bristling defenses of Hitler's Wehrmacht!

We've heard that they are smashing at our foe — sparing neither steel nor sweat nor blood in one final, furious assault that marks the supreme military effort of this War!

And what news do Eisenhower and his men expect from us?

Men and women of America — what the Invasion is to our fighting men, the 5th War Loan is to us at home!

For us, as well as for them, this is the crisis — the time for tremendous, overwhelming effort! Make no mistake! The 5th War Loan will undoubtedly be the biggest, most vitally important financial effort of this whole War!

If the 5th War Loan is to succeed, each one of us must do more than ever before — must buy double . . . yes, triple . . . the Bonds we bought last time.

Our men expect to hear that we are buying double — that we are matching their sacrifice as best we can — that the American nation, soldiers and civilians together, is making one gigantic effort to win this War!

That's the news our men expect to hear from us.

Will you personally see that they get it?

And here are 5 More reasons for buying Extra Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.
